KOREATOWN: MARKET OVERVIEW

One of Los Angeles' most diverse, vibrant and compact neighborhoods

Koreatown is one of the most densely populated, culturally rich areas of the Greater Los Angeles Area, enticing locals and visitors with its remarkable shopping and dining experiences. The neighborhood has its unique character, featuring trend-setting restaurants, hotels, nightlife, full-service spas, and karaoke bars and cocktail lounges.

With a multicultural mix of residents and languages, Koreatown is one of the most stylishly international areas in Los Angeles.

Considered a regional commercial center, the area houses high-rise office buildings, large hotels, shopping malls, small retail, single family houses, as well as high rise and low rise apartment and condominium buildings. Located in the heart of Los Angeles, Koreatown's excellent central location is minutes away from key employment centers including Downtown Los Angeles, Hollywood, West Hollywood, Wilshire Boulevard's Miracle Mile, Beverly Hills and Century City.

KOREATOWN: THE LIFESTYLE

One of Los Angeles' most diverse, vibrant and compact neighborhoods

Central Location

Koreatown reflects the city's 'smart growth' initiative promoting a vibrant, compact urban area attracting business and restaurants while also expanding the range of transportation, employment and housing opportunities. Private investments fueled construction and developments in the early 2000s complimenting public infrastructure projects.

Public Transportation

The development of the Red and Purple lines emphasized the prime location of Koreatown and increasing visibility of the area and mobility of its residents. An extension of the Purple Line under Wilshire Boulevard to Westwood is under way, expected to be completed in 2028. The area is also served by buses.

Shopping

Koreatown and its surrounding neighborhoods have plenty of shopping opportunities. With an emphasis on markets, skin care and home goods, the shop-lined streets are peppered with trendy dessert shops, coffee shops, karaoke bars and entertainment venues. Some of the popular shopping centers are Chapman Plaza, Koreatown Plaza, Madang the Courtyard, Koreatown Galleria.

Nightlife & Dining

The Koreatown submarket is one of the few LA neighborhoods that never sleep. With clubs, dives, cocktail bars, and other hidden gems on nearly every block, there is a thriving nightlife scene. Koreatown has the largest Korean community outside of Korea. This concentration of restaurants that pick up every culinary trends just months after they have hit Seoul – Korean barbeque, street-style food, trendy dessert, all can be found here.
