Market Overview

Sprawling New Developments in Pahrump

The Pahrump Valley is experiencing a surge in business growth, with new companies entering the area and existing ones expanding their operations. Currently, there are 30 commercial projects in various stages of development or construction.

Arby's officially opened its doors on Tuesday, March 28, 2023 at 680 S. Highway, Midas Muffler under construction will now be going up next door to Arby's. Chipotle has also broken ground on a lot adjacent to Wells Fargo and a Quick Shine Car Wash is pegged for land on South Highway 160 just north of Wilson Road.

The Silverton Casino Project plans to build a 125-room hotel and an attached casino on almost eight acres of land outside the Spring Mountain race facility. The project has been delayed due to improvements that the Nevada Department of Transportation wants to make along Highway 160.

Spring Mountain Motorsports Expansion is well underway, the 6 new miles of track are down and additional facilities, such as a garage and restrooms, are also being built.

Warehouse & Storage developers are constructing multiple new warehouses to store fireworks sold by various retailers in the valley, including BlackJack, Area 51, Phantoms, and Red Apple Fireworks. Additionally, new self-storage and RV storage companies are being built on Commercial Street and South Blagg Road, while two existing mini-storage businesses on Homestead Road are expanding to meet the high demand for storage options in the area. PV Construction is also creating a new storage yard and shop on land behind the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #10054.

Professional Office space & more services several new businesses are coming to Pahrump, including a professional office building, a community health center, an equipment rental store, a cabinet company and showroom, and new multi-family units. Pahrump Valley Glass is moving to a new location and remodeling an older building, while a new blinds store is opening on Frontage Road. Arms Corp and Aztec Cosmetics are expanding, and Access Realty is relocating to Cortina Street.

Sanders Family Winery

Pahrump has a diverse selection of wineries and meaderies, all with picturesque mountain views.

Wineries & Meaderies

Established in 1988, Jack Sanders founded the first modern winery in Pahrump. The Sanders Family continues to be committed to hand crafting each wine to finesse and perfect balance, bringing out the best in each vintage varietal and proprietary blends. The family has been growing grapes in Pahrump for nearly three decades. The first vineyard was our Valencia Road Property (Now Winery Road) with our newest vineyards located along the Kellogg Agricultural Bench on Kellogg Road. The tradition continues with the completion of our new stunning Renaissance Tuscan style Winery, Visitors Center and Performing Arts Amphitheater. Much care and thought were involved in the creation of this immaculate facility.

Whether it's estate wineries or distilleries, Stonewise Mead & Cider offers a craft mead and cidery in the same region. One of the very few meaderies in the Silver State, meads and ciders are different from other alcoholic beverages based on the sugars they're made with. Meads, which can sometimes also be called honeywine, are made with fermented honey, while cider is made from fermented apples. See what's on tap, then grab a glass and settle into the tasting room or patio area with Stonewise staples like the Battle Born, NoMaD, Cranky Apple, Dystopia, Blackberry Slush, and beyond.
