Abundant natural lighting, nature-inspired wallpaper, and cozy leather seating gives this meeting space an undeniably welcoming feel.

Floor-to-ceiling windows provide plenty of light and quintessential Brooklyn views.

Modern, light-filled workspace in the heart of Williamsburg

Built in 2016, this two-story building has its entire top floor devoted to high-end office spaces flooded with natural light. 134 North 4th Street sits just above vibrant Bedford Avenue, with access to the finest restaurants, art, and music venues, and fashion boutiques in trendy Williamsburg—not to mention an up-and-coming startup scene that's ideal for young urban professionals. WeWork's space features a mix of sleek private offices, sun-soaked lounges, and modern meeting spaces sure to inspire creativity, productivity, and collaboration.

An outdoor terrace with colorful accents and plenty of plant life provides views of the surrounding cityscape.

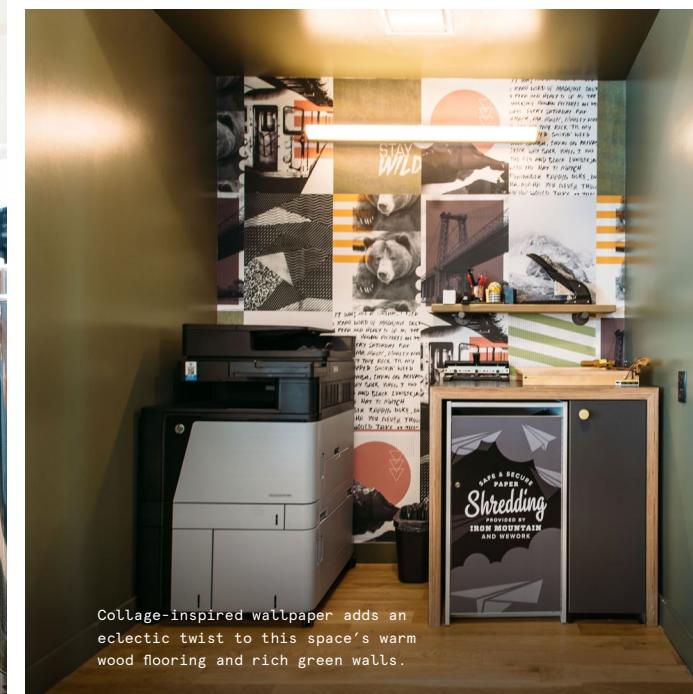

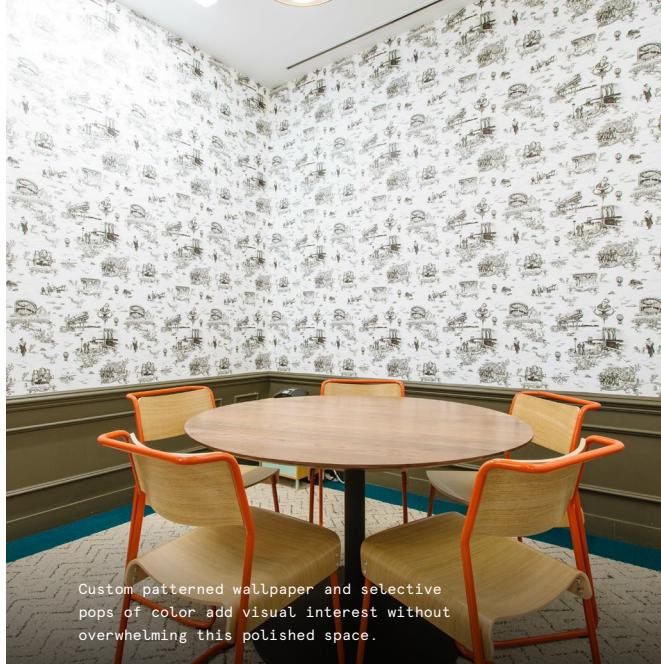

Spacious common areas feature golden herringbone flooring, brick columns, and sleek pendant lighting.

The epitome of elevated industrial design

With layered graphics, pops of bright color, and bold patterns, 134 North 4th Street draws from the vibrant creativity of Williamsburg itself. Hardwood oak flooring, bright natural light, and furnishings in sleek silhouettes lend themselves to this space's urban-minded refinement.

- The space contains industrial details softened with rich leather couches, golden woods, and a warm color palette
- Each meeting space features custom wallpaper, patterned tile carpeting, and colored accent walls
- A stunning outdoor terrace offers beautiful views of Williamsburg

This bright common space features motivational quotes and fun, refreshing furnishings to kickstart the workday.

A pantry with a graphic tile backsplash and eclectic décor is the spot for members to gather and refresh.
