Location Overview

WILDOMAR OVERVIEW

Wildomar is located along Interstate 15 in Riverside County, a growing community comfortably nestled in a valley bordered by a mountain range on the west and rolling hills to the east. Its boundaries take in some 24 square miles.

Wildomar is a community of old and new, more mature homes and acreages with horses and other animals mixed with more modern housing tracts. Nestled between the cities of Murrieta and Lake Elsinore, Wildomar officially became a city on July 1, 2008, at that time home to about 28,000 residents.

Wildomar is known for:

- Spacious residential lots and horse properties
- Family-oriented neighborhoods
- Easy access to outdoor recreation
- A quieter pace of life compared with nearby urban centers

Residents often travel to Murrieta, Temecula, or Lake Elsinore for expanded shopping, dining, and entertainment. Community discussions frequently describe Wildomar as offering good value for larger homes, while noting that long commutes can be challenging during peak traffic.

Popular nearby attractions include:

- Santa Rosa Plateau Ecological Reserve for hiking and wildlife viewing
- Lake Elsinore for boating and fishing
- Local parks and trail systems throughout the city.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY OVERVIEW

Riverside County is one of the fastest growing counties in the United States, leading the rapidly changing Inland Empire market, with rivers, mountain peaks, deserts and fertile valleys, Riverside County offers diversity that few locations can match. More than two million people live in Riverside County, making it the fourth most populous county in California, taking advantage of affordable housing, nearby beaches, mountains, hiking and bike trails, the Wine Country near Temecula and resorts that offer oases in the desert. Riverside County covers 7,208 square miles in Southern California. Together, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties have been dubbed the Inland Empire.

California’s fourth largest county by population is expanding its economy, working to diversify beyond the housing industry that has driven the region’s economy for years.

Centrally located in the heart of Southern California; Riverside County borders San Bernardino, Orange and San Diego Counties. Interstate 10 runs through the entire County from east to west, and Interstates 15 and 215 connect Riverside County with San Diego County and San Bernardino County. Highway 60 and 91 link Riverside County to Los Angeles and Orange Counties. Attractive to many businesses, rail service connects Riverside County businesses with important markets, ports of entry, and key airports to expedite major national and international commerce transactions. Metrolink provides a large number of commuters from Riverside to Los Angeles, Orange and San Bernardino Counties In addition, Riverside County is presently served by 3 airports including the rapidly expanding Ontario international Airport: Palm Springs International Airport and San Bernardino International Airport.
