NEW WYOMING DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION INTERCHANGE COMPLETED (2023)

In 2018, a new $14 million federal grant was awarded to Rock Springs to improve traffic flow by providing a direct connection from Interstate 80 to the growing Rock Springs industrial park. Construction began in 2021 and was completed in 2023. The project included replacing an existing bridge with a higher vertical clearance, constructing eastbound and westbound ramps with continuous acceleration/deceleration lanes and building a new grade-separated crossing over the Union Pacific Railroad. The Wyoming Department of Transportation Director, Bill Panos commented on the project stating, "This interchange will facilitate intermodal access, and freight movement and will open new areas for commercial, industrial and economic growth."

10 REASONS TO LIVE, WORK & INVEST IN SWEETWATER COUNTY Source: livability.com

An outdoor lover's paradise, Rock Springs is just three hours from Salt Lake City. The nearby Green River and Flaming Gorge National Recreation Area in Sweetwater County earned the city a spot on Livability.com's Top 10 Best Cities for Water Activities list. Home of Wyoming's Big Show and several rodeo events, the city also has thriving energy industry that is a major contributor to its growing job market.

Being a great place to live also means being a great place to work. A thriving economy helps the tax base (so there's more money for city improvements) and helps a city attract and retain talent. The median household income in Rock Springs, Wyoming is $75,863.

- 1 LOW TAXES A favorable tax structure is in place in Sweetwater County, where businesses don't pay corporate income tax and residents don't pay individual state income tax. Also, Wyoming has a low 4 percent sales tax.
- 2 WWCC Western Wyoming Community College offers 60 degree programs and 26 certificate offerings, with a main campus in Rock Springs and outreach centers in Green River, Rawlins and Evanston.
- 3 HEALTH CARE Area residents have access to quality health care at Memorial Hospital of Sweetwater County and Aspen Medical Center, plus there are several specialists and elder care options throughout the region.
- 4 PUBLIC LANDS About 75 percent of Sweetwater County land is open to the public for hiking, camping and exploration, with popular destinations like Flaming Gorge National Recreation Area, Killpecker Sand Dunes and Expedition Island.
- 5 GREAT RECREATION There are so many recreation opportunities in Sweetwater County that it's hard to list them all. People can enjoy hiking, biking, camping, rock climbing, paddle boarding, wind surfing, ATV riding, hunting, fishing...and more.
- 6 FOR BUSINESS A pro-business climate is present throughout Sweetwater County, with low costs of doing business, low regulatory burdens and convenient access to state legislators and even the governor.
- 7 BREATHING SPACE A low population density exists in Sweetwater County, with U.S. Census figures showing that the county averages only 4.2 inhabitants per square mile. The county's current population is about 45,000.
- 8 GOOD TRANSPORTATION Sweetwater County is lucky to be located along a major transportation corridor that includes Interstate 80, two U.S. highways, three Wyoming state highways, major flyways and the Union Pacific Railroad.
- 9 CONVENIENT AIRPORT Along with daily commercial flights to Denver, Rock Springs-Sweetwater County Airport accommodates corporate jets and general aviation planes and provides an annual $30 million economic impact to the region.
- 10 ETHNIC DIVERSITY Rock Springs is "Home of 56 Nationalities" thanks to immigrants from around the globe who came to the city to work coal mines that provided fuel for steaming the Union Pacific Railroad trains.
