Marketing Description

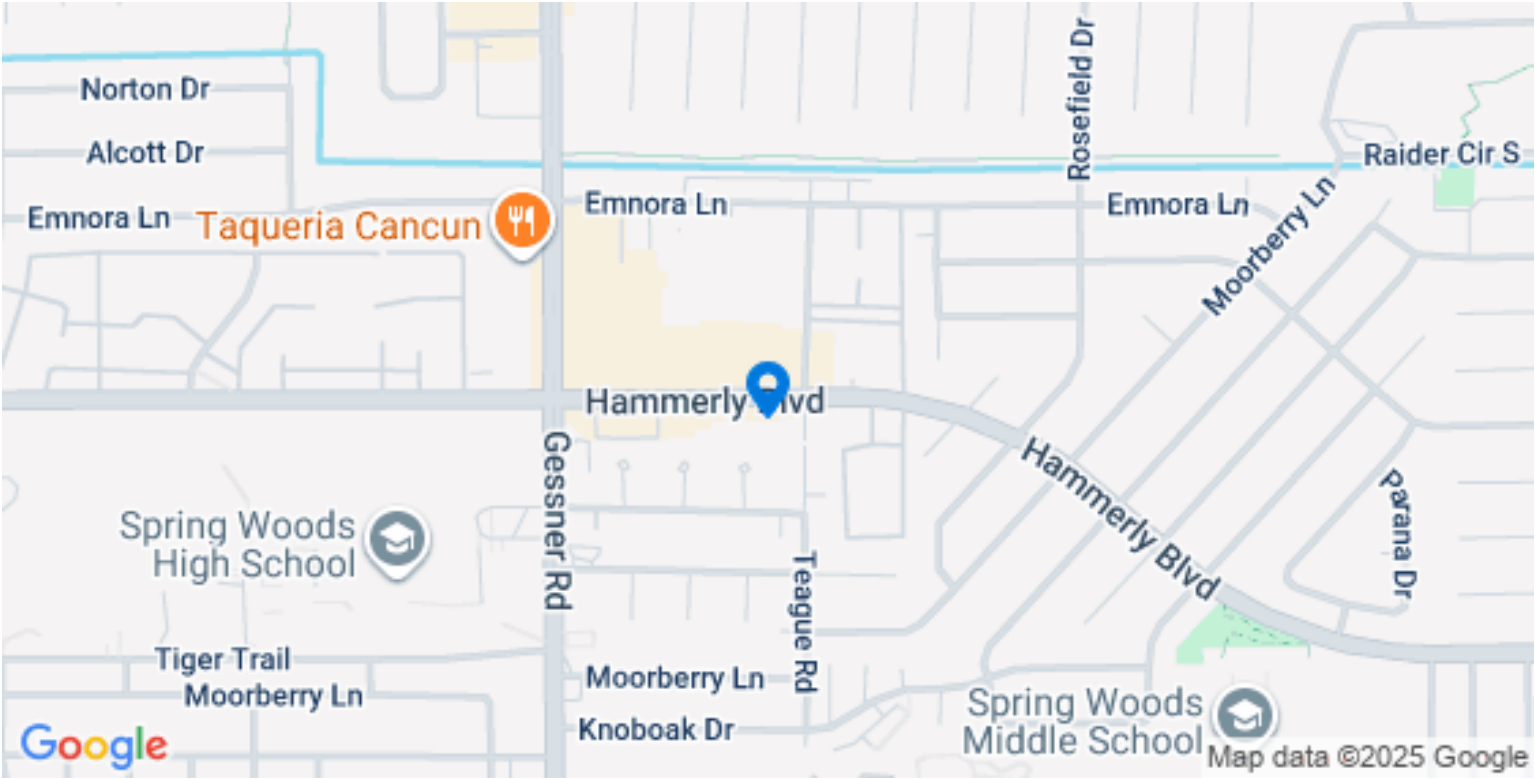

Currently home to Montanan’s Furniture, this property offers a spacious showroom, excellent visibility, and prime frontage in a high-traffic area. While operating as a well-known furniture retailer today, the layout and location make it versatile for any retail, showroom, or specialty use.

With ample parking, flexible floor space, and strong curb appeal, this is a rare opportunity for an entrepreneur or investor to step into an established location and make it their own.

Investment Highlights

This property offers excellent frontage along a high-traffic corridor, providing maximum visibility and accessibility. The building features a spacious open layout with flexible design, making it suitable for retail, showroom, or specialty use. With ample parking and strong curb appeal, the asset is well-positioned to capture both consumer and investor interest. Surrounded by steady residential and commercial growth, the location benefits from strong market fundamentals and continued area expansion. This is a versatile opportunity with long-term value and multiple repositioning possibilities.
