205 NORTH ORANGE AVENUE - PROPERTY SUMMARY

Sarasota, FL 34236

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Prime opportunity in Sarasota's Downtown Core (DTC) zoning district, one of the city's highest-intensity zones supporting mixed-use, residential, office, and hotel development. While the property currently features a fully leased, well-maintained building, it also represents a compelling future redevelopment opportunity. The 0.34-acre urban infill parcel allows 10 stories by right, with potential for additional height and density through attainable-housing incentives. Developers can explore 50 units/acre base density (approximately 15–17 units) with the ability to increase up to 200 units/acre (approximately 65–70 units) through the Downtown Density Bonus Program. A boutique hotel concept is equally feasible, with an estimated 40–80 keys depending on design and parking. Upper levels in a future build may achieve water views, subject to height and surrounding development. Located steps from Main Street, the property offers exceptional walkability, visibility, and long-term demand, making it attractive both as a stable income-producing asset and as a prime downtown redevelopment site.
